

VIDEO

The park's video is relatively short, just 14 minutes long. It depicts mission life in the year 1807 at Tumacacori, telling how the church was built and how the Native Americans interacted with the Spanish; the hardships as well as the successes.

TUMACACORI 1807

- The video is located in the museum and is self starting. Just press the button when you wish to see it. If someone is already watching it, you can join them through the end and then restart it to see the parts you missed.

